

COUNCIL OF THE CANADA-CHILE COMMISSION FOR ENVIRONMENTAL COOPERATION JPAC MEMBERS BIOGRAPHIES

Jaclyn DAITCHMAN

Executive Director for ESG Client Coverage at MSCI Inc. – Canadian JPAC Member

Jackie Daitchman was appointed in 2022 to serve for a second term as one of the two Canadian representatives of the Joint Public Advisory Committee (JPAC) under the Canada-Chile Agreement on Environmental Cooperation.

Jackie Daitchman is the executive director for Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) Client Coverage at MSCI Inc. Within this role, Jackie is responsible for helping Canadian asset owner and asset manager clients integrate MSCI ESG Research into their investment decision-making processes. Previously, as MSCI ESG Research's lead Consumer Sector and Canadian market analyst, Jackie conducted client training seminars and spoke at events on topics such as forced labour and climate change. Prior to joining MSCI, Jackie worked in corporate social responsibility, with a focus on the agricultural and mining industries in Latin America and West Africa.

Jackie is fluent in Spanish and French and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from the University of South Carolina and Master of Applied Environmental Science and Management degree from Ryerson University.

Jackie sits on the external advisory committee of the Ryerson University Institute for the Study of Corporate Social Responsibility and co-leads the Canadian Responsible Investment Working Group's Climate Workstream and the Toronto Chapter of Women Investing for a Sustainable Economy (WISE).

David LEVY

Aquatic Ecologist and Fisheries Advisor – Canadian JPAC Member

Dr. David Levy was appointed in 2022 to serve as one of the two Canadian representatives of the Joint Public Advisory Committee (JPAC) under the Canada-Chile Agreement on Environmental Cooperation.

Dr. Levy has worked as an applied ecologist for nearly 35 years advising First Nations, the Governments of Canada and British Columbia (BC), non-governmental organizations as well as the private sector. Since 1990, Dr. Levy operates Levy Research Services Ltd. to provide independent advice in aquatic environmental assessment.

Previous assignments have included serving as an Expert Witness during Exxon Valdez litigation, Research Director for the Cohen Commission of Inquiry into the Decline of Sockeye Salmon in the Fraser River and between 2017 – 2020, as a member of a Federal Review Panel that conducted an independent assessment of the proposed Roberts Bank Terminal 2 Project.

Dr. Levy spends most of his professional time providing advice to Fraser River First Nations related to co-management, fisheries assessments in Traditional Territories and analysis of development activities that affect aquatic resources. Dr. Levy has undertaken projects for the Salmon Co-ordinating Committee, Upper Fraser Fisheries Conservation Alliance, First Nations Fisheries Council of BC, Cooks Ferry Indian Band and many other Fraser River First Nations. Over the past 15 years, Dr. Levy has worked closely with the St'át'imc Nation and BC Hydro in support of Water Use Planning in the Bridge-Seton Hydroelectric System.

Dr. David Levy maintains a strong professional interest in the interactions between climate change and ecosystem management.

Manuel José BARROS

Associate Lawyer at Carey Law Firm – Chilean JPAC Member

As a lawyer at Carey, Mr. Barros focuses on environmental law and natural resources and has advised different companies and organizations, both public and private. He has also worked as a foreign associate in the London Office of Eversheds Sutherland and as chief of staff of the Vice Minister of Environment and of the Executive Director of the Environmental Assessment Service.

Mr. Barros is also a professor of Environmental Law and Sustainability at the Faculty of Law of the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile and professor of Natural Resource and Environment at the Universidad Finis Terrae.

Mr. Barros holds a law degree from Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile, a Master of Science in Environmental Policy and Regulation at The London School of Economics and Political Science and a diploma of Administrative Law at Pontificia Universidad Católica de Valparaíso.

José Tomás BARRUETO SOTOMAYOR

Partner at Bertrand-Galindo Barrueto Barroilhet & Cía - Chilean JPAC Member

Mr. Barrueto concentrates his practice in the areas of Energy and Mining, Corporate and Commercial Law, Environmental Law and Sanctioning Proceedings, Administrative Law, Project Development, Real Estate, Litigation and Arbitration.

He has worked both in the public sector, as Regional Director of the Environmental Assessment Service of the Atacama Region, and in the private sector, advising a wide range of local and foreign clients in his areas of expertise, especially in matters related to the environmental impact assessment system, the Environmental Superintendence and the Environmental Courts.

Mr. Barrueto is one of the Chilean members of the Joint Public Advisory Committee (JPAC) of the Commission for Environmental Cooperation between Chile and Canada. He is also a professor of the course mining and energy projects development, at the LL.M. program of Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile Law School. Mr. Barrueto is recognized in the Energy Area by the international publication Chambers & Partners.