

California's Waste Diversion and Greenhouse Gas Reduction Grants

Marissa Cota, Branch Chief
Division of Circular Economy
CalRecycle

California Climate Investments

Since 2015, California has invested $12.78bn of Cap-and-Invest dollars to fund projects that reduce emissions, protect public health, strengthen local economies, and support natural environments.

Grant Programs

- Organics
- Co-Digestion
- SB 1383 Local Assistance
- Edible Food Recovery
- Community Composting for Green Spaces

Typical Grant Expenditures

- Equipment
- Construction
- Personnel
- Design
- Permitting
- Education and Outreach
- Administrative

